Berkeley	UC Berkeley TES Link	Yes	Refer to Notes	2018-2019 UC Berkeley is honoring the 2016/2017 articulation on Legacy ASSIST. They are in the process of building a website that will list major guidelines for a select few majors, with articulation information for their top feeder colleges to their UCB colleges. (e.g, College of Engineering) These guidelines will include new and those majors that have changes in prerequisites.

Davis		Yes, with exceptions	Refer to Notes	2018-2019 UC Davis will honor articulation on 2016-2017 ASSIST Legacy, and will post on a campus website majors for major prep information and articulation for 2017-18 and 18-19 for all CCC's shortly.
Irvine		Yes		As published on the 16-17 agreements all majors in the Donald Bren School of Information and Computer Sciences require a minimum grade of B in each required course. The Computer Science major will require an additional transferable Math/CS course. The Henry Samueli School of Engineering has updates to admissions prerequisites but they do not hold students to a higher standard for selection than what is on the 2016-17 agreements. Please refer to our Transfer admission website for all admissions prerequisites: http://www.admissions.uci.edu/apply/transfer/requirements.php
Los Angeles		Yes	Refer to Notes	2018-2019 UCLA will honor the major preparatory courses listed on the 2016-17 articulation agreements on Assist.org for transfer applicants for the majority of majors for the Fall 2019 term.
Merced		Yes		There are some changes to articulation for 17-18, but they do not hold students to a higher standard for selection than what is on the 2016-17 articulation agreements.
Riverside		Yes, with exceptions		As published on the 16-17 agreements: Effective Fall 2018 students pursuing a major in Economics, Economics/Administrative Studies, Business Economics and Psychology will be held to selection criteria to be considered for admission. • Economics, Economics/Administrative Studies, and Business Economics will require completion of UCR's MATH 9A equivalent to be considered for admission to the major. • Psychology will require completion, with a grade of C- or better, a course equivalent to UCR's MATH 4 or higher to be considered for admission to the major. Courses that articulate as MATH 5, 9A, or 22 will meet this requirement. •• NEW: The College of Natural and Agricultural Sciences will now be accepting IGETC, however students should focus on completing lower division major preparation.	18-19 Curricular Changes
San Diego		No		UC San Diego faculty approved 2017-18 lower division major prep changes. UCSD will honor these changes for 2018 applicants. We do not expect students to be disadvantaged for admission purposes.
Santa Barbara		Yes		There are some changes to articulation for 17-18, but they do not hold students to a higher standard for selection than what is on the 2016-17 articulation agreements. • Please see the major preparation selection criteria on our website at http://admissions.sa.ucsb.edu/counselors/
Santa Cruz		Yes		Students must check the Admissions Major Selection Page for major prep; although major prep selection has not changed much therefore students applying for fall 2018 should not have difficulty meeting the
